

ONE ANOTHER: PRAY

Use the following notes in your Growth Group or for further personal study of today's message. We hope these will enrich and deepen your walk as you study God's Word.

GETTING STARTED:

1. How much of your life is spent in prayer? What do you usually pray about?

DIGGING DEEPER:

2. How important is prayer for one another (James 5:13-16; Colossians 4:2; Romans 12:12; Ephesians 6:17-19; 2 Corinthians 1:11)?
3. When interaction with God is a regular discipline, love, grace and kindness become a regular part of our lives. How does your life match with this statement?

APPLICATION:

4. Intentionally pray this week...at home, at church, with others.

ONE ANOTHER: PRAY

7/8 in the series One Another
August 24, 2014 • Pastor Robb Williams • James 5:13-16

Many years ago at the University of North Carolina, a good friend of mine asked Billy Graham what the key was for a successful revival. Billy Graham said there are three keys to a successful anything, "Prayer, prayer and prayer." Following today's look at James 5:16, let's increase our dependency on prayer and especially pray more for one another.

1. Pray for one another (James 5:13-16). Hurray! A positive and productive counter to all those negative one another's!
2. Great books on prayer, great prayer truths (Luke 18:1; Colossians 4:2). Power through Prayer- E.M. Bounds. Prevailing Prayer- Charles Finney. Too Busy not to Pray. Bill Hybels.
3. Group prayer options (Acts 2:42). "The vitality of the church was a measure of the reality of their prayers"
- Rev. Dave Williams of Ridley College.
