2. What ideas or comments from the sermon caught your attention?

TALK IT OUT:

3. What concerns you most about current world events?
4. Why do you think the world is acting the way it is?
5. What should we be focused on instead of how the world is acting?
6. Which piece of the puzzle is missing - from our viewpoint?

WORK IT OUT:

7. What discipline or disciplines can help us stand firm with all that is going on in the world today?

May 15, 2016 • Pastor Robb Williams • 2 Thessalonians 2

Few things in the Bible have more varied interpretations than passages speaking of the end times. We are certainly in for a rollercoaster of dramatic and spectacular happenings. But what about us, today? In light of our current unprecedented political landscape, in light of both ISIS and North Korea, in light of the struggles within our own families, the rise in the suicide rate, mental illness, cancer and the ever growing list of challenges that we each face today, what are we to do? Good news! Today's chapter takes us from the huge picture to the big picture to a picture of you!

1. The Huge Picture - (2 Thessalonians 2:1-12). Life will get super crazy, but God wins through Jesus Christ.
2. The Big Picture - (2 Thessalonians 2:13-15). Life will get super crazy, but we are safe.
3. Your Picture- (2 Thessalonians 2:16-17). Life is super crazy, but we have work to do.

Application

Am I standing firm enough?

Am I about good work and good words?
