

KORAH: A TOUGH STORY TO SWALLOW

Use the following Growth Group discussion questions to deepen your relationship with God, his Word and others.

Growth Group Leaders: It is not necessary to use all the questions. Select or ask questions you like or that best fit your Growth Group.

BREAK IT OUT:

1. If you could travel back in time, what is one decision you would make differently? Why?
2. What SURPRISED you or made you THINK in the story of Korah?

TALK IT OUT:

3. How can we better respond to those in authority over us?
4. What character traits do you see in Korah?
5. In what area of your life do you show one or more of these character traits?
6. What can we do to react more positively to our leaders, even though we may be unhappy with them?
7. In what area of life do we tend to have wavering trust in God? Why?
8. How might this lack of trust undermine our ability to succeed in this area?

WORK IT OUT:

9. What area of your past can you renounce and commit to a fresh new path?
10. How can your growth group help you in this journey?

KORAH: A TOUGH STORY TO SWALLOW

8/10 in the series The Supporting Cast
August 14, 2016 • Pastor Robb Williams • Numbers 16

How does your family history look? I suppose there are some bright spots, as well as some blemishes. Have you ever felt destined to repeat the sins of your family? So many today feel as though they must forever live under the already determined misfortunes of relatives. Today we will learn from the family of Korah that a rebound is possible. No matter our past, we too may live a fully productive, God-honoring life. It is up to us alone.

1. Korah's Sin - (Numbers 16:1-11)? Let's check our pride and our motives and be committed to building others up.
2. God's Grace - (Numbers 16:12-15; 21-23; 25-27; 41-48). As hurt as we have been, let's keep being grace-filled.
3. Family Rebound - (Psalms 42-50; 62; 72-85). No matter our past, our greatest days can yet be ahead of us!

NEXT STEPS

Will you renounce your past and commit to a fresh new path?
