

Use the following growth group discussion questions to deepen your relationship with God, his Word and others.

BREAK IT OUT:

1. Who did God use to bring you into a relationship with Jesus? How did they share Jesus with you?
2. What encouraged you or challenged you most about 2 Corinthians 5:11-6:2?

TALK IT OUT:

3. What has been your experience in trying to share Jesus with others?
4. What is most difficult for you?
5. 2 Corinthians 5:17 says, "...if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come!" What is "new" in your life now that you know Christ? What are 1 or 2 ways this newness affects your relationships?
6. Do you think most believers actually think about someday standing before the Lord? Why or why not?
7. Take some time to reflect on what it will be like to stand before your Risen, Exalted Lord. What might He have you do to prepare for that day?
8. What are some practical steps we can take to remind ourselves of the urgency of our task to share the Good News about Jesus?

WORK IT OUT:

9. What step or action should you take this week to represent Jesus as an ambassador to your little corner of the world?
10. How can your growth group help you as you take your next step?
